independence for the blind of west florida is the only nonprofit entirely devoted to educating the blind and visually impaired in west florida the word is around that the ingredients in vibrel are not stated clearly anywhere on their website