the most notable of these seems to be the age of the mother, with the chance of the disease increasing as a mother gets older.

of installing some sort of video device in the room -- but the larger point is that this is happening